The guest speaker will be the Rev. Joshua Santos, administrator of St. Ambrose Parish. The music at the event will be presented by Youth for Christ, a Couples for Christ Ministry from Los Angeles.

Throughout Lent, please encourage your teens to participate in the CRS Rice Bowl, and bring your group's contributions to the Evening of Praise & Adoration. To learn more about CRS Rice Bowl and the event, please visit www.dioslc.org. Register your youth group by April 26!

Office of Life, Justice and Peace

● Social Action Summer Institute

The national Roundtable Association of Catholic Diocese Social Action Directors is holding its annual Social Action Summer Institute in Salt Lake City July 25-28, and all Utah Catholics are invited! SASI offers first time attendees grounding in Catholic social teaching, Biblical theology and the spirituality of social justice. SASI is planned jointly with the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Charities USA. The 2019 conference will focus on giving voice and fostering systemic change for people experiencing homelessness or statelessness, while we also help each other feel at home again in our church. Social justice ministry is dedicated to serving individuals on the margins of society. Housing affordability, health care access, racial injustice serve as some of the many barriers to resolving homelessness. For immigrants and refugees, increasingly unwelcoming policies and attitudes are leaving many with no place to call home. Meanwhile, Catholics are struggling with continuing revelations about the sexual abuse crisis. SASI 2019 will look at these critical issues as we each seek to live our faith and shelter the homeless. Please share the flyer and look for the full schedule and registration information this April.

● Healthier Rural West Summit

Parish leaders, please consider joining in learning more about rural communities and help promote the dignity of life across Utah at the Healthier Rural West Summit, taking place March 19-21 at the Little America Hotel in Salt Lake City. The Summit builds on momentum from 2018, when Stanford University's Bill Lane Center for the American West convened a workshop to devise strategies for improving health care and wellness in the rural West, titled 'Improving Health and Health Care in the Rural American West'.

The Summit is a two-day strategic gathering of stakeholders from across the Rural West that will offer participants an inspiring vision of rural cooperation and leadership in the information and health economies. Get your ticket at www.healthierrualwestsummit.org
